The Feng Shui of Shen Yang Food Street 沈陽美食街風水

1.

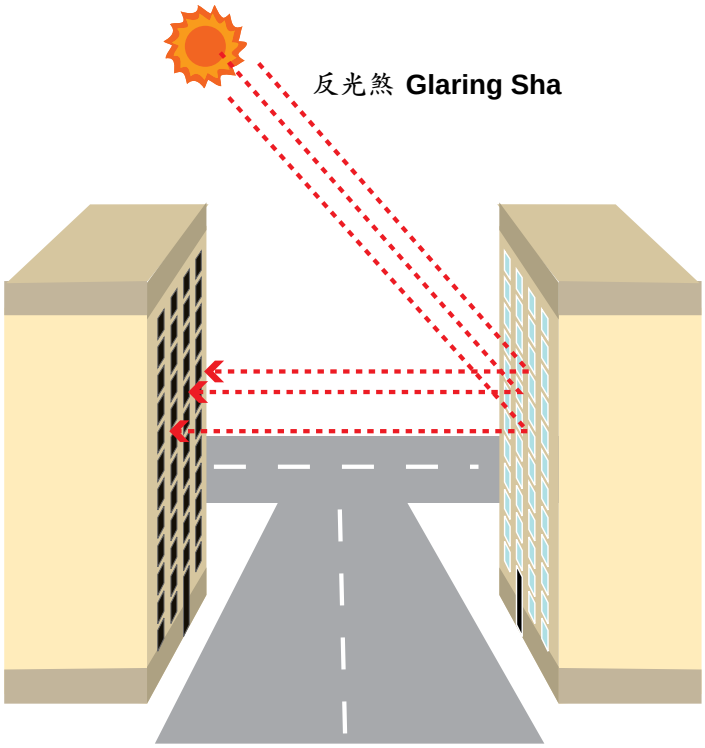

左邊這里的店鋪可以把門口改底一點，氣就自然會由對面流回過來。

The shops on the left side should attempt to lower the height of their entrances so that Qi can collect in the area, as well as flow easily, from the opposite side.

氣由左方流入右方，所以這邊的的店鋪會先收到氣，生意自然好過左邊的店鋪。

As the Qi flows from left to right, the shops on the right will automatically receive the Qi first. This is why the business is better for the shops here than the ones located on the left.

2.

建築物如面對著玻璃或金屬建築的外牆，會導致在陽光猛烈時有反光煞的問題。

Buildings with glass or metal sheet facades can often reflect light, especially on a bright sunny day. The buildings can cause problems in terms of Sha Qi by creating what is known as 'Glare Sha' for the neighbouring buildings.

The Emperor Yong Zheng 雍正

清世宗雍正帝（1678年12月13日—1735年10月8日），姓愛新覺羅，名胤禛，康熙帝第四子。生於康熙十六年，卒于雍正十三年，死後葬於清西陵中的泰陵。雍正母爲康熙孝恭仁皇后烏雅氏。民間謠傳雍正篡權，更改康熙帝遺詔而繼承皇位。雍正在位時期，置軍機處加強皇權、火耗歸公與打擊王公官吏腐敗等一系列政策，對康乾盛世的延續起了重大作用。

The Yong Zheng Emperor (December 13, 1678 - October 8, 1735) was the fourth son of Emperor Kang Xi, and the third Qing emperor to rule over China, from 1722 to 1735. A hard-working ruler, Yong Zheng's main goal was to create an effective government at minimum expense. Like his father, the Kang Xi Emperor, Yong Zheng used military force in order to preserve the dynasty's position. Suspected by historians to have usurped the throne, his reign was often called despotic, efficient, and vigorous. Although Yong Zheng's reign was much shorter than the reigns of both his father, the Kang Xi Emperor, and his son, the Qian Long Emperor, his sudden death was probably brought about by his workload. Yong Zheng continued an era of continued peace and prosperity as he cracked down on corruption and waste, and reformed the financial administration.

Semenyih Memorial Hills 靜安林

回到靜安林這裡，你可看到周圍的群巒層疊，羅城緊抱，可眞是藏風聚水！
You can clearly observe here that Semenyih Memorial Hills is a multiple-layered Spiral City. It is enveloped well by many layers of surrounding mountains, which helps to gather Qi in the area and protect it from strong winds.

1a.

土星 Earth Star
平坦穩定的方形建築物屬土，最適合學府和住家。此外，在這裡做生意也是不錯的選擇。
A square-shaped building is considered to have the Earth element. As such, it would be good to utilise a building with such a roof for homes and businesses as it denotes a sense of stability and solidity.

1b.

火星 Fire Star
三角形的建築物未必一定不好，除非斜度太高而又尖銳就會造成問題。
Triangle-shaped buildings are not bad as such, but their interiors should not be too narrow as then the Qi will not be able to gather there. Sharp, steep roofs are considered to have a strong Fire element.

1c.

上述的建築形並不會引起任何問題，因爲它們個自都在不同的屋頂下。
A building shaped as above will technically not cause any problems in the long run. The inhabitants of a building complex such as this will not face any internal problems as they are under a different roof for each block.

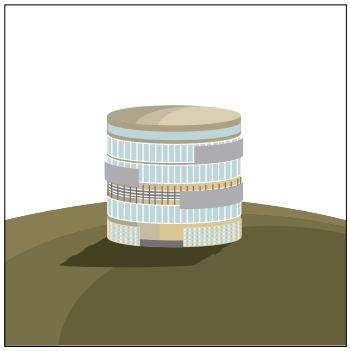

1d.

L形屋子是十分不好的風水。如果將屋子間隔成兩個部分，這樣屋子看起來就會變成兩間方形屋子，這就不成問題了。
An L-shaped building is generally not very good. However, if the roofs are separated, then there are two blocks of building which will not be a problem.

金星 Metal Star
圓形建築物屬於金星所以並不成問題。
Metal Star buildings will generally not be a problem for the inhabitants, as the Metal Star would make them prosperous.

2.

樓宇後方無靠山，左右方和前方的樓宇又不能把它包圍著，因此，這種高層建築將承受周圍的風煞。

The taller building is generally not in a very good position, as it has no support from any other buildings around to protect it. As such, it will be affected by very strong Wind Sha.

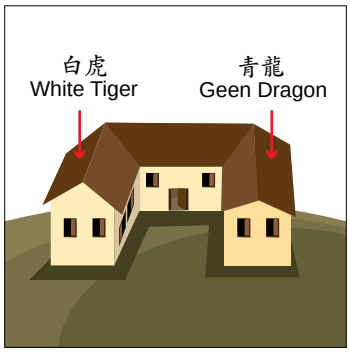

3.

這種樓宇如果太靠近山，當氣沖下來，有個洞就可通氣了。可是如在平地，那就會形成穿心煞，住在裡面的人就會感覺不安定，甚至會導致家庭分裂。如眞要選住這種樓宇，選擇在洞下半部的單位還算穩定，在橫兩邊也還可以。在上面的單位就很不穩定了。

If this type of building is located near a mountain, the gap in the building will allow the Qi that rapidly rushes down to go through, and this is fine. If the building is located on flat land, having this gap in the middle is not good, as it will create 'Piercing Heart Sha.' Residents in this building will have unstable relations with each other, and families may fall apart. If one has no choice to but to live here, choose the lower level as it is still stable.

4.

這種三合院就像人造青龍白虎，可是中間卻空了像個‘凶‘字。所以最好把它分成三個屋頂成爲三間屋子，那就不成問題了。

This type of house has a man-made Green Dragon and White Tiger formation, but has a missing sector. As such, it would be better to section off the house into areas with three separate roofs because then it would be considered to be three different buildings, and would be unaffected.
